List of Credibly Accused Clergy

On Monday of this past week, the Diocese of Providence made public the ‘List of Credibly Accused Clergy’ who have served in the Diocese of Providence. The reasoning for this public listing of individuals living and/or deceased is elaborated upon in this communique from the Communications Office of the Diocese of Providence.

“Recent national and international attention has brought a new focus to the history of clergy sexual abuse. This has caused enormous pain, anger and confusion. Inquiries were being made about the existence of such cases in the Diocese of Providence, and whether or not, like other dioceses, we would be releasing a list. Continuing our long-standing practice of transparency, Bishop Tobin asked for a thorough review of diocesan files of priests who have served in the Diocese of Providence since 1950 to identify those credibly accused of sexual abuse of a minor. The Diocese is now making the findings of this review public."

It grieved and sickened me to read the ‘List of Credibly Accused Clergy’ names of individuals I have known, but what hurt most as I scanned the names was the amount of pain, hurt and abuse that has been caused to innocent individuals in the parishes of the Diocese of Providence. The scripture that comes to mind is Matthew 18:6:

"But anyone who is the downfall of one of these little ones who have faith in me would be better drowned in the depths of the sea with a great millstone round his neck."

I do not pretend to know the truth/false, guilt/innocence or full devastation of any of these situations. But I do know that I and all of us need to pray for the victims of Clergy Abuse, the Church in the midst of this clergy sexual abuse crisis, and for the accused.

Here is a prayer that may be helpful for all of us:

Prayer for Healing Victims of Abuse

God of Unlimited love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just:
You gave your only Son to save us by the blood of his cross.
Grant them justice for their cause,
and transform their wounds into blessings.
Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
heal your people’s wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Guide us to the truth in me would be better drowned in the depths of the sea with a great millstone round his neck."

By those who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them.
Sooth their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith.
Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.
Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts,
deal your people’s wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Grant us the courage and wisdom,
humility and patience to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
