LECTIO DIVINA

Thursday September 19 6PM

St. James Parish Office
Confession Room
All are invited and welcome to attend!

Lectio Divina (Latin for "Divine Reading") is a traditional monastic practice of scriptural reading, meditation and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's word. Lectio Divina has been likened to "feasting on the Word": first, the taking of a bite (lectio); then chewing on it (meditatio); savoring its essence (oratio); and, finally, "digesting" it and making it a part of the body (contemplatio). In Christian teachings, this form of meditative prayer leads to an increased knowledge of Christ.

The parish food pantry depends solely on the generosity of you, our parishioners, and we thank you for everything you donate. Between 10 & 15 families benefit weekly from your good-will. We could not continue this service without your generosity. Food, grocery cards and other financial assistance are always appreciated. Cash Donations can be placed in the collection basket on Sundays with St. James Food Pantry written on envelope. The following items are always needed and can be placed in the bins located in church front entrance: cereal, peanut butter, jelly, pasta, pasta sauce, soups, rice, beans, tuna, vegetable canned goods, coffee.

Thank You!
