January 12, 2020

The Baptism of the Lord

“You are my Son.”
Dear Parishioners,

As the tax filing season approaches, you can request a statement of contributions to St. James Church for the 2019 tax year by completing the form below and dropping it in the collection basket or calling the Parish Office during office hours.

Name: ____________________________
Address: ____________________________
Budget #: ____________________________

Thank you for your continued generosity!

The Parish share of the Grateful for God’s Providence Providence Campaign is hard at work. We have begun work on the Brouillette Center entrances and roof.

The old carpeting in the church is being removed and we are restoring the hardwood floors.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This prayer vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This prayer vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil reminded me of the need to support and encourage our elected officials with prayers for God’s grace and wisdom. Thus, I suggest that in this election year we all make a point of calling to mind individual elected officials and ask God to grant them the wisdom and compassion to govern well.

This past week I represented our Parish communities at the 12th Annual ‘Fighting Poverty With Faith Vigil’ at the Rhode Island State House Rotunda. It was a time to pray for all our elected officials as they began their new legislative session of the new year. The faith vigil called out the name of every elected official and invoked grace of God with these words – “May they govern with wisdom, care and compassion.” This prayer vigil remind